California Horse Racing Board Rule 1699 states in part: "A horse which interferes with another and thereby causes any other horse to lose stride, ground, or position, when such horse is not at fault and when such interference occurs in a part of the race where the horse interfered with loses the opportunity to place where it might, in the opinion of the Stewards, be reasonably expected to finish, may be disqualified and placed behind the horse so interfered with."

ANDINA'S OSUNITAS WIN RAISES THE BAR

Trainer Ben Cecil and owner Arnold Zetcher came away enthused and with raised expectations for 4-year-old filly Andina after Saturday's 56th Osunitas Stakes. The Irish-bred daughter of Singspiel held off Wild Mia by a head in the 1 1/16-mile turf race, her fourth factory and 12th in-the-money finish in 15 career starts.

"We figured out she doesn't want to go a mile and a quarter (sixth in the April 16 Grade II Santa Barbara Handicap)," Cecil said. "But at this level she's very tough. Now we need to get her a win in a graded stakes. We're looking at the Mabee (Grade II, $250,000 John C. Mabee, Sunday, August 14) and the Palomar at the end of the meet." The Grade II Palomar Handicap is set for Labor Day, Monday, September 5, and is 1 1/16 miles on the turf, a sixteenth shorter than the Mabee.

"We bought her in Europe as a two-year-old and she has been an amazingly consistent filly," Zetcher noted. "The way she held on here and wouldn't let those other fillies go by her...what a race she ran today."

IN THE SWIM

Trainer Bob Baffert's scan of the internet on his cell phone early this morning showed the headline that swimming champion Michael Phelps had forgotten his swimsuit and had to borrow one for the 200 freestyle at the World's Championships in Shanghai in which Phelps finished second to teammate Ryan Lochte.

Baffert's response was an immediate text to personal friend Phelps, saying in part: "When the going gets tough, the tough go to Del Mar. I have a suit you can wear."

The first two words in the nearly immediate response of Phelps, apparently between races, were "ha ha." After that, he expressed a desire to make the Del Mar scene as soon as possible.

Phelps went on to win the 200 meter butterfly, capturing his first gold medal of the championships. The last time Phelps competed in China was the 2008 Olympics, when he won a record eight gold medals.

CLOSERS — A longtime fixture on the Del Mar backstretch, trainer Bruce Headley made a cameo appearance Wednesday morning, having shipped 6-year-old mare All the Love in from Santa Anita to run in the sixth race. Headley, who has opted to train his horses in Los Angeles and travel south on race days, said it is the first year he has not stabled at Del Mar since 1950 ... Notable recent morning workouts: Stakes-winning 4-year-old filly Switch, six furlongs in 1:12.80, and 3-year-old filly standout Turbulent Descent, also 1:12.80 for six furlongs on Monday ... Amazombie, targeted for Sunday's $250,000 Grade I Bing Crosby Handicap, went four furlongs in :52.80 for Bill Spawr. The trainer, not entirely pleased with the time, said the five-year-old gelding would likely be put through a "blowout" exercise on Saturday morning to restore a competitive edge ... The "Claims Report" for the first week of the meeting: 46 claims for a total of $1,002,000.

Del Mar ANALYSIS

By BRAD FREE

BEST BET: Private Bounty (5th race)

FIRST RACE:

1.Carousel 2. Artuya 3.Hard Sun

CAROUSEL makes her U.S. debut for trainer Ben Cecil, who has had Del Mar success with other European shippers. The latest in a long line of Pivots to import to the U.S., CAROUSEL can mow down what looks like a modest cast of locals. ARTUYA is lightly raced (four starts) and proven at the level. She'll get a good trip forwardly placed, saving ground. This is the first day the turf rails were scheduled to be up at a 7-foot setting. It will be interesting to see if speed holds better on the tighter course. HARD SUN finished second vs. older last time; she technically drops in class into this N1X for 3-year-old fillies. She is getting better every start. BAUBLE QUEEN won a big sprint early last month, and fits if she can run long.

SECOND RACE:

1.Warning Song 2. Massone 3.Shrug

WARNING SONG ran into a buzzsaw last time, runner-up in a highly rated, fast-pace N2X similar to this. He actually ran a winning race, and obviously is much improved since he was gelded prior to his June 3 comeback win. Graded stakes-placed comebacker MASSONE is the "best horse" in the field, but this is his first start since November. SHRUG is lightly raced (three starts) and improving.

THIRD RACE:

1.Little Unusual 2. Warren's Today 3.Vonn Nez

LITTLE UNUSUAL was blocked the length of the lane in a better-than-looked debut. It is tough to stretch out to a mile off only one short tuneup, but this Calbred maiden filly field is not that great and 'UNUSUAL can move forward with a race under her belt, and a clean trip. WARREN'S TODAY, runner-up twice at the same class, was flattered when the winner of her last (Butterfly Beach) returned to win here opening week. VONN NEZ ran like she needed the start last out. She was in some tough spots last year at 2, and could be the price play second start back from a long layoff.

Del Mar
ANALYSIS

FOURTH RACE:

1. Gutshot Straight 2. Los Bomberos 3. Blingboy

A handful of sharp 3-year-old claimers entered this sprint, none sharper than GUTSHOT STRAIGHT. He dominated by seven lengths (or more) his last two starts, he has a versatile running style that allows him to sit off the pace, or go for it, and if he runs back to his most recent romp, it's over. LOS BOMBEROS was run into the ground last time, and a similar pace battle could unfold here. But he drops in class, and his maiden win two starts back makes him a threat. BLINGBOY has won two in a row and could get a good trip just off the top pair.

FIFTH RACE:

1. Private Bounty 2. Thunder of Zion 3. Gahnzo Bob

Runner-up at this class level last out, consistent closer PRIVATE BOUNTY is the logical favorite in this maiden-40 starter sprint. He is lightly raced, with good numbers, and a deserving favorite to win from behind. The only knock is the inside draw. THUNDER OF ZION looms the upsetter on the front end. He has repeatedly chased or pressed wickedly fast fractions, and often outruns his odds. Clast out from a better-than-looked (faster) restricted claimer, 'ZION can be the speed of the field under 10-pound apprentice Eswan Flores. Come and catch him, possibly at an attractive price. GAHNZO BOB tries to become the first two-time winner at this meet. Claimed off a decent maiden-20 win opening day, he wheels back in the logical spot, maiden-40 starter. CARMICHAEL won an okay maiden-40 last time, but he established a fairly soft pace and was not seriously threatened. The pace could be a little quicker here.

SIXTH RACE:

1. Teafatiller 2. Mark the Bench 3. Renegade Storm

This N1X turf route is a good spot to take a shot at a price with TEAFATILLER. He stepped way up last time with a super runner-up finish at 29-1 despite racing greenly again. He had trouble on the far turn, dropped back and was seemingly in danger of being swallowed into the lane, then finished in a rally. It was the best race of his career, he is qualified to upset with a similar effort. He is stuck on the far outside, and the rails are at 7 feet, but his likely high odds (6-1 or higher?) makes it a gamble worth taking. RENEGADE STORM probably is the best closer in the field, but he doesn't get there first often (2-for-16). He will roll late, and if he finds a way through he figures right on the wire. MARK THE BENCH is a razor-sharp front-runner who might benefit if rails-up (7 feet) makes a difference in the course profile that was tough on speed the first week when the rails were down. Win or lose, MARK THE BENCH is the speed of the field and the one to catch. SHEDI-
AK figures close, SCORPION TIME is good enough, but unraced in nearly a year, SAMMARTINO hit the board both starts last summer on this turf course.

SEVENTH RACE:

1.Setsuko 2. Bourbon Bay 3.Dahoud

Hard to believe SETSUKO is still eligible to a N1X. Yet the 1-for-14 veteran (six seconds) stands out in this G3 marathon, based on his recent races against the cream of the West Coast handicap division. Those include runner-up finishes in the G1 Santa Anita Handicap and G2 Californian, and a close fourth behind the top older horses in California in the Hollywood Gold Cup. SETSUKO has been banging heads with the best, and running well. He takes a giant drop in class into this mile and one-half G3, and enters as a potential standout. BOURBON BAY shifts from a turf-marathon career, to the main track. He has defeated decent turf fields, and been competitive against the best (Acclamation). If he handles Polytrack, the good turf horse fits with these. And unlike the top choice, at least 'BAY knows how to win. He is 6-for-19. DAHOUD, moving up in class for the Hollendorfer-Rosario team, is a lightly raced (13 starts) older gelding in sharp form. He can stay a marathon, and could be loose on the lead. It's his first try on synthetic. Come and catch him.

EIGHTH RACE:

1.Musical Arts 2. Friendly Mary 3.Gambling Cowgirl

First-time starter MUSICAL ARTS debuts for winning connections, with a solid work pattern. The 2-year-old filly by Bertrando should come out firing. A year ago (Aug. 13, 2010) owner-breeders Marty and Pam Wygod won first out with a similar filly. Yellow Slicker, also trained by John Sadler and ridden by Joel Rosario, won first out at this maiden-40 Calbred level. FRIENDLY MARY looms the upsetter. She was not aggressively ridden last time, and it cost her any chance at 7-2. Now she switches to hustling rider Agapito Delgadillo and is believed to have more speed than she has shown. This is her first vs. Calbreds. GAMBLING COWGIRL looks similar to another first-start filly that nearly sprang an upset for the same connections. Sure enough, it was this filly's half-sister Mrs. Card who came out firing in her debut last Oct. 15, runner-up at a big price. Trained by Sam Semkin, ridden by Victor Espinoza, and bred by Hi Card Ranch, GAMBLING COWGIRL has a big look if she is anything at all like her sister. Same pattern.
